We have paid in interest to members. $17,355 39
We have paid in expenses in eight years. $8,67 97

The board of directors has declared a dividend of 12 per cent per annum on all shares of the first series when 100 months old and $100 are paid in, thus giving $150 for $100 paid in at $1 per month, or $1,500 for $1,000 paid in at $1 per month, or $1,500 for $1,000 paid in at $1 per month, or $1,500 for $1,000 paid in at $10 monthly, with the privilege of continuing until the shares are worth $200, at the same rate of in crest. These large profits have not been brought about by charging heavy rates of interest to borrowers. For example: We advance $150 on each share for $2 per month, or $1,050 for a total payment of $14 monthly, and running 100 months; $15 monthly will pay the debt in 91 months, $16 in 83 months, $17 in 77 months, $18 in 72 months. Remember these payments are for $1,050, or $50 more than is usually advanced. If this extra $50 be paid in addition to the regular dues the time would be shortened still more. The borrowers share in the profits equally with the others. We pay 5 per cent per aunum on shares withdrawn before maturity. We are also paying 6 per cent per annum on special extra payments of $100 or more, interest payable monthly, and the principal returned when called for.

Building Associations are now the most popular and useful financial institutions for the working man and woman and also for those of moderate means, affording facilities for saving money and earning interest, or for borrowing, not to be obtained in any other way. The "Perpetual," as will be seen from the above figures, offers the best possible terms to borrowers or investors. The books for the new Minth Series are now open. Shares, $1 per month, can be had at all times from the Secretary, 618 12th st. Annual meeting WEDNESDAY EVENING, November 6, at 615 7th st. Amendments to the Constitution, made necessary by the constant growth of the Association, will be acted on. Our annual report will be interesting reading and we advise every one to get a copy.

THE DAY IN OHIO.

Foraker May Carry Hamilton County, but it is Taking Hard Work.

Special Dispatch to THE EVENING STAR. CINCINNATI, OHIO, Nov. 5 .- The weather is delightful and indications point to a large vote in Ohio today. A lively interest is manifested at all voting places in the city and voting is progressing rapidly. In some of the wards more than half the registered vote had been cast at 10 o'clock this morning. There is no special excitement, but there is a great deal of earnest work in progress. The enforcement of the liquor and Sunday laws in this city is going to reduce the republican majorities here, but to what extent it is impossible to conjecture at this hour. Foraker may carry this county, but the most enthusiastic republicans are not sanguine on this point. The saloon element in the German quarter are scratching his name and may or may not vote for Camp-bell, the democratic candidate, while the vote of the temperance and law and order league is an uncertain quantity. There is no news here from the state at this hour, but a complete republican victory is certain. The closest cal-culation at republican headquarters in Columbus last midnight figured a majority for Foraker of about 12,000 making an allowance for a loss of more than 10,000, as compared with his plurality two years ago. The same calculations also make the legislature republican in both branches

They were up bright and early this morning and witnessed the opening of the polls in various parts of the city.

Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 5 .- The republicans were encouraged this morning by the reports of fair | polled. weather in northern Ohio. At the republican headquarters in this city it was estimated that the absence of rain meant from 2,500 to 3,000 peddlers, neat little election booths upon which were heaped the tickets. Courteous officials were in charge and voters were supplied with the tickets of their choice as as the votes could be accepted by the judges and clerks. The voting between 6 and 8 o'clock was fairly heavy. Later in the forengen it became lighter. the forenoon it became lighter, increasing again at noon. At the office of the board of elections it was estimated from the early morn-ing reports that about 32,000 votes would be cast in the city, with nearly a full vote in the townships. About one-third of the city's vote had been cast at 10 o'clock. There was nothing in any way approaching excitement. People were not allowed to congregate about the polls and no crowds were visible anywhere. Voters of both parties seemed to be using the lead pencil less fre-quently than usual in local elections. For this eason it was estimated that the counting would be rapid, and that returns from some of the wards might be expected by 8:30 or 9 o'clock.

Columbus. COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 5 .- The indications up to noon are that a heavy vote will be polled. Foraker is being scratched, but not to the extent anticipated by the democrats. There is little scratching on the legislative ticket.

VIRGINIA.

The Old Dominion Seems to be Democratic-A Democrat Killed.

RICHMOND, VA., Nov. 5.-The weather is fair and the election is progressing with very little excitement. A large white vote is being polled. There is no friction whatever. Up to 11 o'clock all but fifty or sixty who had voted had shown their ballots and they were democrats. It is presumed the others were republicans. Out of 1.322 registered voters at the Clay ward, where most of the white workingmen vote, only 49 are negroes. At the first precinct in Marshall ward. known as Rocketts, the vote was being polled rapidly. This precinct is noted for having the argest percentage of white republicans in

In Jackson ward, known as the "Black Belt," the voting is slow. At the first precinct, with over a thousand registered negroes, the polling s at the rate of 55 an hour. James C. Si the republican challenger, and James Lyons. ex-assistant U. S. attorney, Preston Belvin, president of the Powhatan club, and Harry Smith, jr., are the democratic markers. Among he large white contingent at that precinct was Mr. John S. Ellett, president of the State bank. At the second Jackson precinct the voting is very slow. Only ten negroes had voted up to 8 o'clock. At the third and fourth precincts the negroes were voting much faster. B. Tay-lor McCue, a prominent tobacconist and memne's state executive committee, was arrested in Jackson ward for over chalenging. The election is progressing smoothly Richmond will probably give 3,000 democratic

RICHMOND, VA., Nov. 5.—The weather opened cloudy this morning, but cool. The indications are that a full vote is being polled throughout the state. Both parties in this city had their forces at the polls early, but, while the democrats have been voting steadily, the negroes have not as yet turned out in their usual strength at this hour. Contrary to the expec tations of many, up to noon not a ripple of dis-cord has occurred between the two parties. The democrats are in high feather and appear confident of victory by a large majority. The The democrats are in high feather and appear confident of victory by a large majority. The republicans are not faltering in their belief of success, but they will not name figures, alleging that it is too early in the day. Much interest is manifested in the election and but little business is being transacted. Many of those who have already voted have begun to gather in knots on the streets and others to visit the in knots on the streets and others to visit the newspaper offices, vainly searching for election news, which is as yet scant with professional ratherers.

Special Dispatch to THE EVENING STAR.
NORFOLE, Va., Nov. 5.—The weather is beantiful here today and an immense vote is being

1,933 white and 348 colored voters had cast their ballots. The democrats claim the city by 800 majority and the republicans concede the election of the legislative ticket. Congressman Bowden said this morning that if the republicans were backed through the state as badly as in Norfolk they would be defeated. Over five hundred voters in the negro precincts are in line waiting to vote. They are being voted at the rate of one in five minutes. No rows have occurred and few arrests for illegal voting have been made.

NOBFOLK, Va., Nov. 5 .- The weather is fair and pleasant. The election is progressing quietly but actively. In two precincts three negroes have been arrested in the act of putting double tickets in the box. The outlook is for the largest democratic vote ever polled in this district. The republicans are also active.

Danville.

DANVILLE, VA., Nov. 5.—The weather is clear and balmy. The voting on both sides is lively, the whites for McKinney and the negroes for Mahone almost to a man. Several negroes have been arrested for trying to vote double. One negro attempted to vote a batch of six tickets folded into one. The indications point to a full vote in Danville and vicinity. Danville and North Danville will give an unprecedented majority for the democratic ticket. All quiet and no disturbance.

Lexington. LEXINGTON, VA., Nov. 5.—The weather is bright, cool and bracing. An unusually large vote is being polled all over this (Rockbridge) county. The vote is unprecedented at this pre-cinct for midday. The democrats are leading here with a good majority, and the same reports have been received from other sections of the county. From present indications Mahone will be beaten here by 200 or more. CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., Nov. 5.-The weather is bright and the voting fast. There has been no disturbance except the arrest of a negro for interference with voters. The indications are that a heavy vote will be polled. Fort Monroe.

Roanoke.

ROANORE, VA., Nov. 5 .- The day opened beautifully and the weather is fine. A very full vote is being polled, but everything is passing off quietly. The town is such a busy one that the people cast their ballots and return to business at once, very few whites remaining about the polls. Winchester. WINCHESTER, VA., Nov. 5 .- The weather is fair and a large vote is being polled. Both sides are active and there are no evidences of any fraud. Lynchburg. LYNCHBURG, VA., Nov. 5.-The weather is MARYLAND.

All Going Quietly, but Both Sides Watching the Polls Closely.

Baltimore, Nov. 5 .- It is probable that nearly the full strength of both parties in this city will be brought to the polls today. The day is fine, the air bracing and everything favorable for a good turnout. The city is quiet and business slow. The whole interest seems to be in the election. Up to noon the vote was very heavy, probably the heaviest in any municipal election for years. Both sides are straining every nerve. The fusionists claim that their organization is complete in every precinct and that they cannot be beaten without resort to desperate measures. Every polling place is carefully looked after and strangers are closely watched. The reform league, which works with the fusionists, has a lawyer in each of the seven police stations to protect their men if arrested. The system, as reported, is working well. Disfusionists say they will sweep the city. Either candidate for mayor may be elected by a small majority.

The leaders of the regular democrats are riding around to all the polling places and their workers are at their posts. They say they will win. The colored vote is heavy. There is talk that the regulars are trading off the mayoralty candidate for parts of their legisla-tive tickets which are in danger. Outside of Baltimore it is pretty certain that the independent and republican legislative ticket will be elected. There is some fighting and intimidation of voters in certain sections. but there has been no serious outbreak. Charlie Goodman, who exposed the alleged election frauds in Howard county in 1875 in a speech for the independents a week ago Satur-day, has had threats made against him. But he

John K. Cowen, the leader of the fusionists, and a large corps of assistants, lawyers and others are looking after his party's interests at the polls. There have been few arrests.

Frederick. Special Dispatch to THE EVENING STAR.

FREDERICK, MD., Nov. 5.—The election for state and county officers in this section of the state today is passing off quietly and an un-precedentedly large vote is being polled. The officers voted for are controller, sheriff, county surveyor, five members of the board of county commissioners and five members of the house of delegates. Several slight disturbances have occurred at the polls in this city, where efforts have been made to vote repeaters. There is a large amount of cutting and trading being done on both sides and tickets are being scratched right and left. The democrats want to elect a right and left. The democrats want to elect a majority in the board of county commissioners and house of delegates, and to do this it is understood that their candidate for sheriff Otho J. Gaver, is being sacrificed and Baker J. Iamar and Robert M. McDuell of the county commissioners' ticket in order to insure the election of the remaining three candidates on the latter ticket. In the twenty districts of the county outside of Frederick the election is so far as quiet as it is here. There has been some little repeating and inderstood that their candidate for sheriff Otho J. Gaver, is being sacrificed and Baker J. Lamar and Robert M. McDuell of the county commissioners' ticket in order to insure the election of the remaining three candidates on the latter ticket. In the twenty districts of the county outside of Frederick the election is so far as quiet as it is here. There has been some little repeating and intimidating, but wherever possible it has been promptly suppressed. Both sides have their work well organized and are getting out a full yote, but it is slow. At the present time it is work well organized and are getting out a full vote, but it is slow. At the present time it is impossible to give the exact result of the election, but, by careful comparison of contending claims it can be estimated that the republicans have given Geo. L. Wellington, candidate for state controller a gratifying majority over Col. L. V. Baughman. They have possibly elected their candidate for sheriff, Samuel Leazer, a majority in the board of county commissioners and two members of the house of delegates, leaving the democrats a majority in the latter body, two members of the board of county commissioners and surveyor. The majorities on both sides are very lose. In other counties of the state comprispolled. Everything is quiet and up to 10 o'clock | ing the western Maryland district the result, so far as can be now determined, has been favora-ble to the republican county tickets and it is believed the usual majority has been given for the republican state officers. In Garrett the democrats have won votes by their platform declaring in favor of a repeal of the local option law and the adoption of high license. Getty, the democratic candidate for state senate, is believed to be elected, with the balance of the offices won by the republicans. In Allegheny county it is believed the republican state ticket has received over a thousand majority. In Washington over a thousand majority. In Washington county the contest is close, both sides strongly claiming the house of delegates. Wellington gets a majority and the republicans get the county officers. In Montgomery the usual democratic majority has been decreased, but that party elects the greater part of its ticket. In Carroll there is a small majority for that part of the ticket elected by the democrats with one or two of the legislative places for this district. The republicans are also active.

From present indications the democrats will make decided gains over last fall in Norfolk and Portsmouth.

With one or two of the legislative places for the republicans and several of the local ticket. Throughout the district the prohibition vote has fallen off except in Montgomery county.

TWO CENTS.

Hagerstown. Special Dispatch to THE EVENING STAR.

HAGERSTOWN, Nov. 5 .- The election here is passing off quietly, and the weather being favorable a full vote is being polled. There is much scratching and vestpocket voting, which makes the result doubtful. Hon. L. E. Mc-Comas has thrown himself into the fight and is giving an earnest support to Wellington, the republican candidate for controller. At this hour, 12 o'clock, the indications are that the latter gentleman's majority in the county will range anywhere from 200 to 400. On the legis-lative and county tickets both parties are claiming a pretty even division. The chances, however, are more favorable to the success of the republicans throughout, who are unusually well organized and seem to be outworking their opponents on all sides. Dispatches just re-ceived here from Cumberland say that Welling-ton is running ahead of his ticket and will have an astonishing majority in Allegheny county. The democrats are claiming that the republicans are trading off the county for the state ticket, but indications do not sustain this, as the local republicans are working with a will and have every indication of success to retain the board of county commissioners and the sheriffalty. Religion has found its way into the contest, and Wingert, candidate for the legislature on the democratic ticket, is being scratched for being a member of the Junior Order of American Mechanics, which organization, it is claimed, is inimical to the Catholics.

Rockville. Special Dispatch to THE EVENING STAR.

ROCKVILLE, MD., Nov. 5.—The polls opened here this morning at 8 o'clock, and up to noon the election has been progressing quietly. The registered vote of the district is 585 votes and up to this time but 280 have been polled. Out of this the republicans claim to have a majority so far. The colored people were early voted. It is thought that but few split tickets have been deposited, and those principally by democrats who are dissatisfied with their candidate for sheriff. candidate for sheriff.

The democratic county commissioner's ticket will also be cut to some extent here, and it is expected that Roger B. Farquhar, republican, Harrisonburg.

> City Boiling With Hot Work and the State Has Good Weather for Voters.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5 .- The weather here today s all that could be desired, being cool and clear, with a bright sunshine. The Tammany Hall county democracy and republican workers are out in full force, and their efforts in securing votes have been indefatigable since the polls opened. The Tammany enthusiasts place the majority for their county ticket at from 15,000 to 20,000, while the supporters of the being a legal holiday business is practically suspended. All the exchanges are closed.

In the eighth assembly district there is a hot fight for assembly. John J. O'Brien, the discarded republican leader, declares that he will carry the district of Charles alias Silver Dollar Smith against all comers. In this district sev-eral voters were challenged and arraigned on a charge of illegal voting, but the charges could not be sustained and the men were discharged. No trouble has been reported from any district up to noon. The police arrangements are per-fect. Policemen are stationed at all the polling booths and patrol wagons are in readiness to carry policemen to any point where they may be required. By noon about one-half of the entire vote of the city had been polled. Dispatches from Buffalo and Albany say the weather is good for voting. Syracuse had snow this morning, but it does not hinder the poli-MASSACHUSETTS.

The Full Vote is Going Into the Boxes and the Day is Pleasant.

Boston, Nov. 5.-The weather in the eastern part of Massachusetts is cloudy and cool, with a prospect of the continuance of the fair weather conditions throughout the day and the casting of an average vote. The Australian patches from Worcester, Springfield and other cities say the Australian system of voting is working very smoothly, and it is believed will result in much independent voting. The weather at those points is cool and cloudy, but favorable for voting. The full vote is being polled everywhere.

Dispatches from the cities and large towns in this part of the state indicate so far successful work for the Australian ballot law. A large early vote has been polled and the full average vote of an off year is indicated. PENNSYLVANIA.

It is an Off Year and the Vote is Light Today. PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.-Clear and cool

The Elections Are All Local and Interest in Them is Dull.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—The election in this city today is for one judge of the circuit court, one judge of the superior court, recorder of deeds and the full board of county commissioners. These are all county officers, the municipal elections having been held in April. The weather is gloomy and cold and reports in-dicate that very little interest is being taken in the contest. It is believed that not more than 60 per cent of the full vote will be cast.

Students Who Will Not Swear.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 5.-A hazing case by the sophomore class on a freshman of the university has been before Judge Keyes of the municipal court of this city for two or three weeks, County Democracy say republicans declare that they will secure about the same majority. It Finally, on advice of Attorney Bashford, the students have refused to testify. Judge Hodges has had the matter under advisement for several days, and pronounced a lengthy opinion to the effect that if the boys persist in their retusal to testify he will commit them for contempt of court, and as a commitment of this character is not bailable and a writ of habeas corpus would not prevail, a great deal of excitement exists in university circles. Fifteen or twenty students are implicated. Some of them have already left and gone to other colleges. Attorney Bashford, who is himself a graduate of the university, persists in his determination not to permit the boys to testify, and the chances are that the county jail will be soon overflowing with students.
